

Jane Barnett has spent more than 30 years working in the financial services industry. Her extensive experience in trust administration and even broader knowledge of financial planning provide a strong foundation for effectively addressing the unique and complex financial needs of a wide variety of affluent clients and their families. She is personally committed to serving their best interests in her role at Harris myCFO, where she began working in 1981.

Jane has been a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ Certificant and a Certified Trust and Financial Advisor since 1992.

A Phi Beta Kappa, Jane graduated from University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, IL, with a BA in Social Studies Education. She also attended the ABA National Trust School, and took Masters level accounting and tax courses at DePaul University, Chicago, IL to enhance her already impressive technical knowledge.

Jane is an ardent nature and history buff, and enjoys hiking, traveling, exploring, and continuing to learn. She and her family make their home in Downers Grove, IL.
